OR IN....   Greek Classroom

THE RELIABILITY MEASURES OF PROBABILITY
MULTI-OBJECTIVE PROGRAMMING

AFAF EL–DASH

Department of Mathematics, Helwan University, Cairo, Egypt

In this probabilistic multi-objective programming problem is considered. The reliability programs are constructed when some or all the aspiration levels of goals are random variables generally and, more particularly, when they have exponential probability distributions.

The relationship between the actual and effective reliability measures is stated and proved.

1. INTRODUCTION